GALATIANS 3

Verse 11 tells us, "The just shall live by faith." Who are the just? The just are those who have repented and believed that Jesus died because of their sin. The just believe Jesus rose from the dead and has given to them the gift of eternal life. This life is pure and does not need the law of Moses to improve it. The eternal life Jesus gives is holy and just. It is a life that cannot sin. If you have eternal life, you are JUST. You can live by faith because the death of Christ has removed the law from us. The Galatian believers had listened to the false Jewish teachers who were bewitching them with lies of the devil. The false teachers were forcing the Jewish and Gentile Christians to practice the law of Moses, even though it is impossible for anyone to keep the law. Paul explains to the Galatians about Abraham, who was justified by faith and not by keeping the commandments. The Galatians could not be saved by keeping the law of Moses, and they could not live a holy life by keeping the law. The purpose of the law was to be like a schoolteacher that taught us about our sin. The law taught us that we are bad and need a Saviour. Our Saviour is Jesus Christ.

GIVING THANKS

As Christians, we have every reason to be thankful, and we should spend our time here on earth with an attitude of thankfulness. But sometimes we find ourselves not thankful. How do we cultivate that attitude of thankfulness that glorifies God? The actual act of giving thanks to God our Father and to the Lord Jesus, even when we do not feel thankful, helps us in this. We find examples in the Bible of people who gave thanks and, most importantly, of our Lord Jesus Himself giving thanks. Daniel gave thanks to God every day and continued doing so even when the king signed the law forbidding prayer. Daniel knew the consequence was to be thrown in the den of lions, and that does not seem like something to give thanks for. If you read the story in Daniel 6, you will find, though, that because Daniel believed God and continued giving Him thanks, not only did God take care of Daniel but God also was glorified in the end. The verses below are just a few of the verses in the Bible that talk about giving thanks. Maybe you will notice other verses about giving thanks as well.

1. What is one thing we can thank God for? 2 Corinthians 9: _____

2. What is God's will for us concerning giving thanks? 1 Thessalonians 5: _____
