GALATIANS 5

After the Galatians believed on the Lord Jesus, they were freed from the slavery of the law. Verse 7 says, "Ye did run well." This means the Galatians were saved and they were happy Christians. They were living and enjoying the freedom they had in Christ.

Then some false teachers came and told them they had to keep part of the law if they were to be justified. These Christians did not lose their salvation, but they became confused. They thought that they had to believe the gospel and also keep the law. In verse 5, we understand that a believer can be sure he is righteous by faith through the Spirit of God. We cannot become righteous by keeping the law.

If we try by our own power to keep the law, we will fail and we will do the bad works of the flesh rather than the works of God. But if we live by faith through the Spirit of God, we will love one another. A person who is saved has the Spirit of God living inside him, which produces good things in the Christian's life.

The chapter ends with three warnings: (1) Do not brag. (2) Do not provoke or annoy others. (3) Do not be jealous of your friends.

TAKEN BY THE HAND

Did you ever notice that several times in the Gospel of Mark we read that the Lord Jesus takes someone who is suffering by the hand? The Lord Jesus, the eternal Son of God, left the glory of heaven and chose to become a man so He could reach out to us, both to save us and then to help us as we live here on earth. This is so amazing, yet it can help us understand how much love God has for us. "He [Jesus] does not indeed take hold of angels by the hand, but He takes hold of the seed of Abraham. Wherefore it behoved Him in all things to be made like to His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things relating to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people; for, in that Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to help those that are being tempted" (Hebrews 2:16-18 JND).
