GALATIANS 4

People under the law are slaves to the law. They are like a child who is at school. His parents and teachers always tell him, Do this and don't do that. When a child becomes older, he is given more privileges and responsibilities of an adult. When a person is saved by grace, God adopts the new believer as a SON, and the believer becomes an heir of God.

This chapter is about slaves and sons. The slaves represent those who work hard to keep the law. They are compared with sons who have been saved by grace. It is foolish for a son to act like a slave and try to keep the law. It is foolish for a Christian to live like a slave by trying to keep the law.

Hagar and Ishmael represent the law, because they are slaves. Sarah and Isaac represent grace, because they were not slaves. They were free. Hagar and Ishmael were chased out of the house because slaves could not stay together with Sarah and Isaac, who were free. Law and grace cannot be mixed for salvation. A person can be saved only by grace, without the law. The law condemns, but grace sets a person free from the law of sin and death.

MORNINGS

Mornings are a time for refreshment and renewal after the night, whether in the physical or the spiritual sense. We find many verses about God encouraging us and renewing our strength each morning. Also, we find examples of our Lord Jesus as a man on earth in communion with His Father in the morning. Jesus is referred to as the bright and morning star in Revelation 22:16. The morning star shines while it is still dark before the sun rises, so we should be looking for His coming now. The night this world is in is coming to an end and the Lord's coming is very near. But while we are still here on earth waiting for the Lord's coming, let us not forget that "it is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy name, O most High: to show forth Thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night" (Psalm 92:1-2).

1. What are new every morning? (The answer is in two consecutive verses.)
Lamentations 3:_____

2. What does the Lord God wake each morning? Isaiah 50:_____
